MAXIMILIAN'S RULE IN MEXICO.—A correspondent of the New Orleans Times, writing from the city of Mexico, says:

"Maximilian never shows himself. I met him the other morning as I was riding in the drive of the Piedad, a mile from the city; he was walking, while a heavy escort guarded every avenue, and secret police watched jealously any one approaching. He looked stolid, but the cares of his situation begin to tell on him. How can it be otherwise, when he feels that in this land of earthquakes a political eruption may at any time destroy him, and leave nothing but the memory of the evils heaped upon the millions he has oppressed. Any one who looks at the people even of this Capital cannot but notice their discontent.

The most stringent misery is visible everywhere; the greatest economy is practised by those deemed wealthy; four per cent. a month is asked and obtained; there is no trade, no improvement, except in the imperial residences of Chapultepec and the National Palace. The city, it is true, has increased, but this is the natural result of the distrust of the inhabitants of the country, who seek the protection of a large city.

Maximilian, not satisfied with $6,000 a day, which he had appointed himself as salary, has now raised the sum to $7,000 per day, as he cannot live for less. The bulk at the Palace are magnificent affairs; the luxury of the toilets are beyond the limits of description of a republican pen. People may groan, but the Court dances and amuses itself.

Great indignation is now openly manifested by all classes at Maximilian's extravagance. The salaries of all officers have been reduced to a most economical basis to increase his own. This caused great complaint among the Imperialists, which is not ameliorated by the irregularity of their payments. There is, there can be, no revenue; the French treasury, month after month, pays the deficit of Maximilian. How long France will keep it up, only Napoleon knows, if even he knows.

The roads between this city and Vera Cruz continue to be infested by bandits. No one dare go into the country, for they are threatened by both parties. If an hacienda has the very great misfortune of being visited by a party of Liberals, who generally help themselves to what they want, it is immediately punished for so being treated by the Imperialists carrying off the balance of what is left, and probably having all the men impressed into the service of his Majesty. Max. has been so indignant at the scandalous desertions of his native troops, as he says, that his officers no longer report any one missing; they simply take the first man they meet to replace the one who has gone."

THE CONNECTICUT CONVENTIONS.—The Connecticut Republicans have nominated for Governor Gen. Hawley, a brave and capable soldier, who served through the war with distinction. Their platform is straightforward, clear and patriotic; the resolutions express the confidence of the party "in the integrity, ability, and patriotism of Andrew Johnson, who braved secession in the Senate and dashed armed rebellion in Tennessee; who sprang from the people, and is identified with all their interests," and pledge him "our hearty support in his labors for a just, complete and permanent restoration of the Union;" declare equal confidence in the wisdom of the Administration party in Congress; and endorse "the extinction of the doctrine of secession; the repudiation of all pecuniary obligations incurred in support of the rebellion; the sacred inviolability of the national debt; the complete destruction of slavery in fact as well as in name; and the enactment of appropriate laws to assure to every class of citizens the full enjoyment of the rights and immunities accorded to all by the Constitution of the United States." They further declare "that the Union party of Connecticut will hold all officers, local State and Federal, to the strictest accountability and the most rigid economy in the public expenditures." On this platform all patriotic citizens of Connecticut can stand; and Hawley, a patriotic soldier, deserves the vote and support of the people of the State. The Democrats have this year conceded a point. They got tired of nominating such open and defiant sympathizers with treason as Thomas H. Seymour, and getting beaten. They have put Seymour and his friends on the back seat, out of sight, and nominated for Governor, English, whom they burned in effigy and reviled in all their meetings as an Abolitionist and turncoat, two or three years ago. But while the Seymour men conceded the candidate, they insisted on having their share in the platform, just as at Chicago Vallandigham submitted to McClellan's nomination, but put his armistice plank in the platform. Thus we read in the Connecticut Democratic resolutions some stale twaddle about this being a white man's Government, judiciously mixed up with a certain amount of unmeaning verbage.

If the Democratic leaders in Connecticut had given proofs of thorough repentance, and a sincere desire hereafter to do right, they might claim the sympathy of the public. But, like the same men at Chicago in 1864, they are only shamming, and their hatred of impartial liberty sticks out in their resolutions. It is the duty of the people of Connecticut to defeat the designing men, and we have no doubt they will do it.—N. Y. Post.

HOW THE UNION JOURNALS OF NEVADA STAND.—The Union journals of Nevada, says the Enterprise, which have taken a decided stand with the majority of Congress and against the President, are the Enterprise, Humboldt Register, Carson Appeal, Dayton Sentinel, Eastern Slope, and the Ione News. Only one, the Reese River Reveille, has taken a decided stand for the President and against Congress; and if our Chief Magistrate goes over, body and soul, to the Copperheads, we shall expect the Reveille to fight it out on that line. The Gold Hill News is on the fence, ready to jump either way. The Aurora Union is reticent. The Humboldt Register, referring to the Freedmen's Bureau Bill, says:

We fully agree with those Senators who voted to pass the bill over the veto. We have not a doubt of the correctness of their position. Then the question arises: Does the veto amount to cause for a split between Congress and the President? Seward says it does not; that the President's plan comprehends a bureau for the care of the freedmen. By all the light we have, we incline to the opinion that the President has stooped to make a personal contest on this bill, forgetting the public interest.

MINING NATIONAL CONVENTION.—A national convention in relation to the mining interests of the United States is to be held at the Cooper Union, New York, on Wednesday, April 18th, 1866. It will have in view the promotion of such measures as shall appear best calculated to advance the development of our gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal and petroleum interests, and other mineral products. Governors of the various States and Territories have been requested to appoint two citizens to represent their respective districts in the convention. The Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade of the various cities and towns will each appoint two delegates, as also will the directors and officers of the various mining companies. The call is signed by leading names in all parts of the Union, and appears to be backed by gentlemen distinguished in business, in war, in science,

The Daily Oregonian.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE.

TUESDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1866.

In a Doleful Mood.

The Herald of this city is in the depths of tribulation. It finds it impossible to serve the true Democracy and at the same time maintain an appearance of respectability. A few days ago it published a certain set of resolutions drawn up by the Democracy of Columbia county, asserting among other things that the said unterrified Democracy "believe with Jefferson Davis that the people are the best judges of their own grievances and the mode of redressing them." The Herald endeavors to make it appear that Thomas Jefferson and not Jefferson Davis, spoke the above words. Now the fact is Jeff. Davis was really their author. His celebrated speech delivered in the United States Senate early in 1861 in justification of secession was founded on this doctrine. If we do not greatly mistake, Davis expressed the idea in almost the very words which the Herald gives as coming from its Democratic friends in Columbia county. Since then, Jeff. Davis did express this sentiment, and since it is somewhat widely known that he and his confrers, after judging of the extent of their supposed grievances, did proceed to carry out the plan of obtaining redress for them, why should the one fact or the other be denied? If the principle which Jeff. Davis and the Herald contend for be correct as interpreted by them, why not let he wrong to put it into practice as the great traitor proceeded to do? Why should a good Democrat hasten to apologize for the publication of a sentiment which he asserts is the main feature in the creed of his party? The reason is this: Modern Democracy is so odious that it cannot bear to be set forth in its true light; therefore its friends have to conceal its deformities. When any Democrat, more bold than his fellows, chances to let fall an expression which exposes it in its native character, the misadventure produces a wonderful flutter, and even consternation, among the faithful; and some member of the party rises excitedly as the Herald has done, to explain the odious sentiment away.

In the above we do not wish to be understood as denying the right of the people "to redress their grievances," or in other words, to change their mode of government, when they so desire; but we do want to be understood as protesting against the application which Jeff. Davis has given to the principle. The whole people may proceed to alter their Government to suit their wishes; but it is not the right of a factious minority to do it. Jeff. Davis held that a minority was entitled "to judge of their grievances" and to redress them in any manner they might choose; and in conformity with this idea rebelled against established authority and brought on the war. The Democratic party holds the same doctrine as that enunciated by Jeff. Davis, and will be found to carry into practice. We are not opposed to the principle when it receives a right interpretation, but we do oppose the application which Jeff. Davis has given it and which the Democratic party sanctions. For years the Democracy have taken the true view of this subject which Jeff. Davis has held. They have often expressed this same thing in substance, in their platforms. We believe that when a nation proceeds to act as judges of and to obtain redress for their grievances, as Jeff. Davis and his associates did, that action is guilty of treason. The Herald takes the opposite view of the case. The Columbia county resolutions, it tells us, does no more than assert the truth of the Declaration of Independence! If so, why see fit to modify it? Why hasten to elucidate Davis' views from the resolutions? The Democratic party construes the doctrine expressed in that resolution in the same way which Jeff. Davis construed it; but they do not want to say it openly. The Herald wants to generalize and to deceive, but is dissatisfied to tell us what the "glittering generalities" of the party really are. It asserts the truth of the principles which have guided Jeff. Davis' political life, but is afraid to tell us, or to have it infer that it would reduce these principles to practice.

The Herald is unfortunate. How great a pity that it was not the medium through which the real political sentiments of the Columbia county Democracy were so aptly expressed! We cannot wonder that it is both angry and sorrowful. The old adage says "the truth is not to be told at all times," the interest of the Democracy is never to tell it. Therefore, we are not astonished to find that the Herald is grieved and vexed, by reason of having been seduced into telling the truth, when the truth about the party should have remained buried.

State Items.

The Standard of yesterday says: "A negro charged with enticing little girls into his shanty, and there indecently handling them, was yesterday committed by the City Recorder to the county jail to await his trial at the next term of the Circuit Court."

The Flagg heads of the Dalles have nominated for Mayor, J. M. Bell; Recorder, S. A. Campbell; Treasurer, O. S. Savage; Marshal, N. B. Packard; Councilmen, J. W. Flaherty, E. P. Fitzgerald, Wm. P. Miller, Wm. Meeker, A. W. Ferguson.

The Umatilla Advertiser says that among the most wants of that country are mail routes from Umatilla to La Grande, via Swift's and the Umatilla Reservation; from Swift's to Walla Walla, via Rickey's, traversing the Walla Walla Valley, and one from Umatilla City to Independence via Birch Creek and Spring Canyon. These routes would run through very thickly settled portions of the country and would be of vast importance.

We learn that Capt. Borland's company of volunteers, is on its way to Fort Vancouver to be mustered out. Capt. Borland was expected to reach Umatilla on last Saturday.

Capt. Lafollett, instead of being ordered to Fort Vancouver for muster out, as reported last week, has been ordered to Fort Yamhill.

The city corporation of Umatilla has heretofore had a tax of ten dollars on all persons engaged in mercantile business. A late meeting of the common council repealed the provision.

The witnesses in the case of the State of Oregon vs. Dr. Eli Alderman, have all been released on bail.

The O. S. N. Co.'s steamers are now making through trips to Lewiston.

Mr. Baker of LaGrande, informs us that Spring has opened beautifully in the Grand Ronde Valley and farmers are now in the full tide of Spring cropping. The prospects for a season of agricultural prosperity are considered very flattering.

The down train from Celilo last Friday night, ran into a band of mules and killed one and wounded others. When the mules were discovered on the track, the train was under full headway and could not be stopped in time to avert the accident.

In the Union Convention of Lane county, a motion to instruct the delegates to vote for the renomination of Mr. Henderson, was laid on the table by a vote of thirty-two ayes to ten noes and two blanks. The Convention will assemble on the 28th of April for the nomination of a county ticket.

Col. T'Vault, formerly of the Oregon Intelligencer, and late of the Owyhee mines, was in town yesterday. He is on his way to Owyhee, whither he some time ago sent the material for a printing office, and he now goes to start a Democratic journal. He informs us that he is now permanently leaving the State, where he has so many years fought, bled and died for the true-blue Confederate Democracy. Owyhee or Oregon is to be congratulated—we rather think the latter.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 23.

Destructive Fire in Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, March 23.—Pike's Opera House, in Cincinnati, was totally destroyed by fire last night. The Daily Enquirer office and adjoining buildings on Fourth street, were also burned. It was the most destructive fire that ever visited Cincinnati. Loss $500,000.

The Eight-Hour Law in Ohio.

The Ohio Senate has passed the eight-hour bill with trifling amendments, and if they are agreed to by the House, the bill becomes a law July, 1st. It makes eight hours a legal day's work.

Rhode Island Politics.

The Rhode Island Union Convention, which nominated Gen. Burnside for Governor, put forward no platform, and the Democratic party declined not to nominate a ticket because of a split in the Union ranks. The other wing will probably nominate the present Governor Smith for re-election.

Colorado at the Doors of Congress.

The friends of Colorado do not despair of securing the admission of that territory to the Union, by this Congress. An effort will be made to renew the direct attempt. If this fails, an effort will be made to admit Colorado and Nebraska by one act. Perhaps Montana will be ready to come in by that time.

Metrical Weights and Measures Recommended.

The committee on weights, measures and coinage recommend to Congress to authorize and encourage by law, the adoption and use of the metrical system of weights and measures, and that action be taken to familiarize the people with the system, that provision be made by law for the immediate distribution to custom houses and States of metrical standard of weights and measures, and also to introduce the system into Postoffices, by making a single letter weight fifteen grammes, and to cause the letter post cost pieces to be so stamped that they shall weigh each ten grammes, and that their diameters shall be made to bear a determinate and similar ratio to the metrical unit of length.

Georgia Newspaper Nonsense—Firing the Southern Heart Again.

Georgia newspapers publish a rumor that there will soon be held a convention of colored people at Augusta, for the purpose of nominating representatives to Congress from the territory of Georgia.

Proceedings in Congress.

WASHINGTON, March 23.—In the Senate Mr. Pomeroy offered a bill to aid the construction of the main branch of the Southern Pacific Railroads, which was referred.

Mr. Anthony, from the publishing committee, reported a resolution which was adopted, that the further observations of the United States naval astronomical expedition to Chile be discontinued.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the report of the Judiciary Committee on the protest of the New Jersey Legislature against admitting of John Stockton to a seat. An amendment to resolution declaring Mr. Stockton not entitled to his seat resulted, ayes 19, noes 21. The closeness of the vote created considerable excitement. The question was then taken on declaring Mr. Stockton entitled. Before the vote was declared, Mr. Stockton said that Mr. Morrill had agreed to pair off with his colleague Mr. Wright, but had nevertheless voted. Mr. Stockton desired that the Clerk should call his (Stockton's) name which was allowed by the Chair. The vote was then declared ayes 23 nays 21. The Senate adjourned.

In the House, Mr. Stevens introduced a resolution which was adopted, requesting the Secretary of the Interior to report expenditures made under his direction in conformity with the fifth section of the Indian appropriation bill of March 3lst, 1860; which provides and paid to each tribe, for what object disbursed. Mr. Bingham, of the committee on military affairs, reported against the resolution which passed, providing relief for officers of volunteers to be mustered into a grade for which they hold commissions but could not be mustered in, through no fault of their own. The resolution was amended it passed so as to apply to all cases where officers were killed before being mustered in. The bill to reimburse the Pennsylvania militia expenses passed. The ways and means committee reported back the loan bill with amendments one of which provides that the Secretary of the Treasury shall not retire more than ten millions within six months, and thereafter not more than four millions in any month. The House then went into Committee of the whole on this subject, Mr. Morrill advocating the bill as amended. The bill, finally was reported to the House, and passed, ayes 88, noes 53. The House then adjourned.

In Congress last Monday a communication was received from Secretary Seward, inclosing a letter from Messrs. Brower & Co. relating to a bill for service in bringing to Honolulu from the Ascension islands 63 American seamen, left there by the pirate Shenandoah. The bill is for $8,350 in gold, which the Secretary thinks should be promptly paid.

The following is the loan bill as it passed the House:

Be it enacted, That the act entitled an Act to provide ways and means to support the Government, passed March 3d, 1865, shall be extended and construed to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury at his discretion to receive any treasury notes or other obligation issued under any act of Congress, bearing interest or not, in exchange for a like amount of bonds authorized by the act to which this is an amendment; also to dispose of any description of issues of such act either in the United States or elsewhere, in such manner or such a rate as he may think best, for coin or the United States or for treasury notes, certificates of indebtedness, certificates of deposit or other representatives of value, which have been or which may be issued, the proceeds to be used for retiring treasury notes or other obligations issued under any act, and that herein contained shall be construed to authorize any increase of the public debt; provided of United States notes not more than the million of dollars may be retired and canceled within six months after the passage of the act and not more four million dollars in any one month, and provided that the bonds which may be disposed of elsewhere than in the United States, may be payable, both principal and interest, in coin or currency of the country in which they are made payable, but shall not be at a rate of interest exceeding five per cent.; and provided further, that the Act to which this is an amendment, shall continue in force in all its provisions, except as modified by this Act.

Section 2d states that the Secretary of the Treasury shall report to Congress at the commencement of the next session, the amount of excesses or money borrowed under this Act, and on what terms, and character of indebtedness.

Number of Soldiers in the Service.

The Secretary of War informs Congress in answer to the resolution, that on January 9th there were 1,242,217 men in the service, namely: 1,000,000 regulars, 20,837 white volunteers, 97,660 colored, 68,760 staff officers etc., 1,700. Who troops were distributed as follows: 10,800 in Missouri; 4,041 in Virginia; 3,100 in North Carolina; 4,703 in South Carolina; 20,035 in Georgia; 10,294 in Kentucky; 30,000 in Tennessee; 10,682 in Tennessee; 5,847 in Arkansas; 10,253 in Louisiana; 39,845 in Texas. Orders have been issued for a further reduction of 12,554 whites and 2,300 colored.

Further in Relation to California Lands Bill.

Section 2 enacts that it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of the General Land Office, immediately after the passage of this act, to instruct local land officers to send up, after investigation, all cases where such settlers have located upon tracts of the class of land referred to in the first section of this act, to the General Land Office for final disposition and adjudication. If such final disposition shall not be made within one year from and after the receipt at the General Land Office of the official report of State sales returned to in the first section thereof, the title of the State of California to settle-subdivisions of lands shall be complete and final.

Sec. 3. That it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of the General Land Office to furnish the State of California certified transcripts embracing the tracts of land included in said State under this act, which transcripts shall rest the fee simply in said State, provided that maps of swamp and overflowed lands claimed by the State, and which claims, according to said maps, is hereby confirmed and lists of all tracts contained in any first section of this act shall be sent and reported to the Commissioner of the General Land Office by the State authorities through the proper district land offices within one year after the passage of this act.

Sec. 4. That when persons in good faith and for valuable consideration have purchased lands of Mexican grants, and which grants have subsequently been rejected, said lands used, improved and continued in actual possession of the same and where no valid adverse title except that of the United States exists, such purchasers may purchase the same after having such lands surveyed under existing laws at the minimum prices established in law, upon first making proof of the facts as required in this section under regulations to be provided by the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

EARTHQUAKE.—By a dispatch from San Francisco last evening, we learn there has been another earthquake in that city, which was felt at Sacramento, San Jose, Gilroy and several small towns in the interior. Chimneys in several places were demolished. Our dispatcher give no particulars, owing to the wires being out of order. We shall probably learn further to-morrow.

AN ERROR.—The resolutions published on the outside under the head of "Resolutions of Union County," should have read Umatilla instead of Union.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of Health. "But how?" you ask. We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the STOMACH, and sustain
The NERVES, the destroyers of the brain,
The LIVER keep in active play,
And regulate, from day to day,
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the mental man,
And like a watch that's kept in chime
By constant care, with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And Thereby make the spirits true.
"How," you inquire, "can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, we reply,
In HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTAGONIST—TRY!

As a trusted regenerator of the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution, and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation, either of the past or the present time, has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors fuel prepare,
Blast fever-taint the heavy air,
Drink not unwell the water found
In prairies, woods or marshy ground.
If sedentary toil you ply,
Nature you must assist or Die—
For when debarred from exercise
For artificial aid the cries.
Medicine's grand purpose and intent
Is threatened evil to prevent.
And if you'd be relieved or spared
From ills that crush the sympathetic,
Hostetter's Bitters use—for note
They are the surest antidote.

To set at defiance the miasma of unhealthy soils, the poison of unwholesome water, the effluvia of crowded work-rooms and factories, and the baneful influence of sedentary employments, it is only necessary to be provided with

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Dyspepsia's pangs, that rack and grind
The body, and depress the mind;
Ague, that as they go and come,
Make life a constant martyrdom;
Colics and dyspeptic pains,
Death which the strong man's vigor wanes;
Billious complaints, those tedious ills,
Refer conquered yet by dyspeptic pills;
Dread diarrhoea that cannot be
Cured by destructive mercury;
Slow constitutional decay
That brings Death nearer, day by day;
Nervous prostration, mental gloom—
Heralds of madness or the tomb;
For these—though in utmost misfortune fall—
Means of Relief at least we hall,
Hostetter's Bitters—medicine sure,
Not to prevent, alone, but cure.

In dyspepsia, fever and ague, bilious complaints, constitutional and nervous debility, constipation, sea-sickness, nausea, and in all complaints of Man or Woman, proceeding from casual or inherent weakness of the body, the one great remedy and restorative is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

To wanderers on sea or land,
From Polar shore to Tropic strand;
To households here, in regions new,
And dwellers in great cities, too,
To soldiers in camp, fort and field,
Who need against disease a shield;
To miners, California bound,
And tillers of wet, marshy ground;
To feeble wives of fragile mold,
To young and middle-aged, and old;
To those in health, who would enjoy
Heaven's best gifts without alloy;
To all the strengthless, weak and pale,
Who droop, yet know not what they ail,
Hostetter's Bitters we present
As Health's most potent element.

If there is any value in public opinion, or any weight in medical testimony, the very best and safest Tonic, Corrective and Alterative now before the world is

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

FIRE LIMITS.—The time is approaching when it will be necessary for the Board of Councilmen of this city to [illegible] fire limits, designating lines within which wooden structures shall not be built. A prominent property holder, and one who has in contemplation the erection of a brick block soon, has called our attention to this matter. He believes the necessity for some such action, as may result from the [illegible] a recent fire in the city of Jackson, Michigan, in which a [illegible] of $2,000 worth of brick buildings, after starting in a [illegible] horse frame residence adjacent to the brick [illegible]. The building of wooden tenements is not only [illegible], but retards the erection of better buildings for the reason that a block which may be an ornament to it, may stand unoccupied when frame buildings are permitted to come into competition with them. The public will [illegible] with satisfaction the removal of an old frame building on Front or First street, to make room for a more imposing structure, then why not interfere to prevent the erection of others of the same class?

ARK OF THE CALIFORNIA HUNDRED.—Capt. McIntosh, of the California Hundred, visited our city a few days since, en route to Montana. Speaking of his return to California, from the East, the Shasta Courier says: "Capt. McIntosh, of the California Hundred, arrived back here on Monday last. For many years prior to the war, he was Wells, Fargo & Co.'s agent at this place and Whiskytown was his residence. His welcome was [illegible] by every countenance. Words were unnecessary to show him that he was welcome, that he was [illegible] the [illegible] his old friends and acquaintance were glad to welcome him back to his former home. The [illegible] was proud of the California Hundred that went nobly to the front—proud that Shasta's representative in that Hundred had nobly sustained himself and the cause. Leaving California, a private in the ranks, he worked his way up by energy, promptness and fidelity, and when mustered out held a Captain's commission. Of the one hundred that enlisted, forty-one only were alive to be mustered out, and twenty-two of these men held commissions in the regiment to the [illegible]."

IRON FENCE-WORK.—An industrious young mechanic of San Francisco has lately completed the model of a [illegible] wheel for steamers, and applied for a patent. As many new boats are now being built on the waters, and our people are generally inclined to encourage home enterprises, we give the following concerning the new [illegible]: The feathering of the paddles is a very simple contrivance, consisting of a [illegible] moved entirely by the power of gravitation, which [illegible] to the buckets as the wheel revolves, [illegible] the [illegible] of the others. The model has been tried upon a four foot model, and [illegible] the attention of competent mechanics [illegible] who attended the trial. A model of it will be placed on exhibition at the Mechanics' Institute for the inspection of steamboat men and [illegible] in such matters.

THE STEAMSHIP.—By the arrival of the [illegible] Troup yesterday morning we obtained [illegible] concerning the quartz discovery near [illegible] shows a specimen of the ore, sent [illegible] surveyor. The rock bears unmistakable [illegible] gold, and we should not be surprised [illegible] quicksilver. 300 pounds of the [illegible] at the battery of the Oregon Iron Works. [illegible] we can learn something of these [illegible] we are willing to give an idea of the value [illegible] but allowing it to be worth $10 per ton, as practical miners estimate it, the result must be enormous. Those are already organized for developing the ledge, [illegible] extensive as could be desired, and extensive [illegible] taken up and recorded about as fast as [illegible] mark out the ground.

[illegible] for sale of the boiling-house of [illegible] Co., [illegible] attention on Front street [illegible] was leading her to the slaughter [illegible] Front Washington street, this specimen of [illegible] not dandified, whose milk generally [illegible] of food and profit to the farming [illegible] the start of her harder, and having [illegible] took lodgings in the stall of [illegible]. While in this situation, sternly observing [illegible] a calf, said to herself—"duty-reasons go, a [illegible] and about a dozen hearty [illegible] to the refractory beast over the [illegible] highway. In this they were also foiled, [illegible] ing the common in a pile together, [illegible] with hand excel, broke for some more [illegible] Pirate down-town.

[illegible] quiet quite plainly extended yesterday [illegible] city, to the effect that our fellow citizen, [illegible], who is known to be very ill in [illegible], had expired. Mr. Perry, clerk of Mr. [illegible] us to state that the report is incorrect, [illegible] advices received from San Francisco [illegible] Mr. H. was fast improving, and we trust we [illegible] some again soon, and that he may be able [illegible] the amount of business for years to come. [illegible] the latest is unknown.

[illegible] Oregonian lately put in a new [illegible] some useful, in visiting the city of a [illegible] of worthless curs, but the dogs are not [illegible] very worthy members of the Council [illegible] fly to him to the disgust, and the hearts [illegible] of spectators who will send [illegible] and lofty tumbling, as he fall across the [illegible] on Front st. No harm was done [illegible] Wells, Fargo & Co. carry the principal [illegible] between this city and the [illegible] by one or by mail. Observing [illegible] of a letter sent by mail from the [illegible] and that the town is [illegible] on the [illegible] department as "The Dalles, and [illegible] the matter, is the terminus in all [illegible] from above Dalles City.

[illegible], 18.—In yesterday's OREGONIAN [illegible] would be a good thing to barricade [illegible] upon the wharf for travel, between [illegible] and the Oregon Steam Navigation [illegible] dock. One of the city draymen [illegible] and received the obstacle he [illegible] was evidently informed that he [illegible] to top it. If liable for trespass. Our [illegible] with the draymen they are the worst [illegible] in the city.

[illegible] OF REAL ESTATE.—Lot 8, Block 26, which [illegible] by O. Kenworthy & Co., [illegible] this day sold. The purchaser was Mr. [illegible] sale, as we look upon it, may be [illegible] of the price of property on [illegible] locality. The lot is 50 by 100 feet, [illegible] for $—. From [illegible] the grade, the street being level in front of the [illegible] lot. There was no bid [illegible] of the [illegible]. It was a free sale.

[illegible] The case against [illegible] has been [illegible] before Justice Magruder, under the investigation of Mr. Wells and Given. The constables arrested at once, that the man's brain had become affected was evident, but they [illegible] at last for him to remain [illegible] view [illegible] and he was taken to the asylum. He [illegible] of having [illegible] mind as [illegible] which had hung upon his [illegible].

[illegible] COURT.—In this Court, there was a tragic [illegible] in the room, the jury being two old [illegible] at the U.S. Court, which closed with a [illegible] in the three entitled, "O, P'Shaw, or a [illegible] about wife."

[illegible].—Mr. A. J. Doolittle is at present in this [illegible] canvassing for "Monk's Continental [illegible] and "Colton's General Atlas", and "Map of the Pacific [illegible]. He will collect data for the improvement of the [illegible] Oregon and of the Territories, to be incorporated by the above celebrated map publishers of [illegible].

[illegible].—The [illegible]ance of a small fine string of brook [illegible] received by steamer from the Cascades yesterday, [illegible] to show the appetites in the lovers of [illegible] fish. The st[illegible] about Portland are too [illegible] to attract [illegible], and the front too well fed, to [illegible] the disciples of Nimrod anywhere sweet in sock-[illegible] duty.

[illegible] COURT—J. J. HOWARD, J.—Manuel Lopez [illegible] up yesterday, but as the private prosecutor [illegible] willing to compromise he was discharged, and the [illegible] grand and [illegible] jobs. It is said at all [illegible] on subjects of this kind.—Several parties, [illegible] drunkenness, who had sobered up in jail, [illegible] to depart.

[illegible].—A man was thrown from a buggy on [illegible] street yesterday afternoon, striking the pavement [illegible] head first. [illegible] area, in consequence of his horse becoming unmanageable. He clung to the reins, however, and being dragged in the mud some distance, prevented a [illegible].

THE MINES.—We have received the first number of a [illegible] magazine, with the above name, published by [illegible], Hastings & Co., or the Cosmopolitan Hotel, San [illegible], under the patronage of the California Mining [illegible] Association.

THE NEW CODE.—McCormick of the Franklin Book Store, has the new Code for sale, at rates established by the State, as announced a few days since. The work may also be obtained at other book establishments in the city.

[illegible] TAX LIST.—We print this morning, on the [illegible] page, the list of lands delinquent for taxes on the [illegible] of 1865.

THE STEAMSHIP SIERRA NEVADA will sail to-morrow [illegible] for San Francisco, leaving this port at 5 o'clock.

FURNITURE SALE.—Kilbourn & Co.'s sale to-day embraces a fine assortment of furniture, and other goods.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Halloran, of the Mountaineer, called on us in person yesterday, looking decidedly alive and healthy. He reports that in Wasco [illegible] everything is lovely and the goose hangs from an elevated point." Mr. H. is on his way to the State Convention, to which he is a delegate.

A Kentucky paper advises the Northern press [illegible] very temperate language when speaking of [illegible] affairs, lest the opposite course may exasperate the South. This advice is of a piece with Mrs. Jeff. Davis' warning; "Don't provoke the [illegible] fiend."

The Richmond Examiner still speaks of Washington as the "Yankee Capital."

News from the Upper Country.

The Walla Walla Statesman has the following information from points on the Boise road:

Mining had commenced in the Basin. The snow was melting under the influence of warm rains. Hill Beachey is making regular tri-weekly trips to Owyhee from Boise City. Also, the stages between Idaho and Boise City continued to run regularly, though the roads were in a bad condition from the melting snows. The Overland Stages were making their regular trips through from Boise City to Salt Lake, carrying mails and passengers.

A band of about twenty Indians near Boise City were killed by a party of citizens, who found that the Indians were supplying other Indians with arrow points and powder, to war upon the whites. The Governor had the remainder of the "pets" moved up under the protection of the Fort. Several parties were out hunting the redskins, with varied success.

The O. S. N. Snake river boat is being pushed ahead very fast to completion. Messrs. Packwood & Co., have moved their Ferry boat about one mile below their old station to make way for the coming steamer. Spring has thrown her mantle of green over the Boise, Payette and Snake river valleys. Roads were getting in good condition all the way down as far as Powder river. No snow on the route except in the Blue mountains.

One train left Boise City for Blackfoot on the 13th ultimo; other trains will soon follow. The high water has subsided so as to be passable on all the streams in the upper country. No danger is apprehended of damages from that source. Snow fell for about one hour in Boise City on the 12th. Grass was plenty from Grand Ronde valley up, and stock were doing finely. Very few wagons and pack trains on the road. Frank Issudon's train was en route for Idaho City, loaded for Mr. Ehler, with $10,000 worth of gum boots.

Farmers were busy plowing and planting all along the Boise river, and have been since the 1st inst. Greathouse's train for Blackfoot leaves on the 10th of April, with passengers and freight. Laborers are in demand in the basin in consequence of so many leaving for Blackfoot.

Traveling was good over the Thomas & Ruckel road. Snow is firm in the trunk, and has melted on this side of the summit down to two feet in depth. It is from four to five feet deep on the other side. No bridges have been lost on this road during the late high water.

Herring, the man who killed I. Kellogg, at the Snake River Ferry some two weeks since, has succeeded in making his escape. Deputy Sheriff Roberts went up for the purpose of arresting him and bringing him to Walla Walla for trial, but before he got there the bird had flown. We now learn that the murder originated in a quarrel about a squaw. Kellogg, it appears, induced Herring's squaw to leave him, and in revenge for this the murder was committed. Both the men used weapons, Herring being shot through the arm, and Kellogg almost instantly killed.

The following is also taken from the Statesman of the 23d:

A leading merchant informs us that thus far this season seven-eighths of all the business transacted has been on account of parties bound for the Columbia river mines. Of those who come from below a very large proportion are bound for the Upper Columbia mines. Very many are waiting to hear that Capt. White's boat is ready to start for the new diggings, when they will put off at the earliest moment. From present indications it would seem that public opinion is about equally divided between Blackfoot and the Columbia, if anything the latter ahead. The accessibility of the latter mines gives them great advantage over the Blackfoot country, and from this cause, if none other, it will not be strange if the majority of the immigrants head for the Upper Columbia.

For some weeks back the demand for horses has been particularly active, and at all hours of the day vendors of the equine species have been busily engaged at their vocation. The immense number of horses in the Valley, as a matter of course, has the effect to keep down prices, and as a consequence, notwithstanding the demand, figures rule low. "Cayuses," suitable for the saddle or for packing, may be quoted at $15 to $30. Of course, superior animals command a higher price, but at these quotations horses can be had that will answer all the requirements of the miner. We understand that parties below are endeavoring to create the impression that horses rule high in this market. This is a mistake. They can be had here at lower figures and in greater numbers than at any other point in the country.

The Idaho Statesman, speaking of the agricultural prospects of that Territory, says:

It is entirely within the truth to state that the prospects of a [illegible]ful season for the farmers of Idaho are to-day better than ever before. They commence this year with many advantages over the last. One year's fencing and ditching is added to the capital to work with. They are not this year impoverished by a hard winter, as they were last, and can therefore plant and sow double the amount of land. The demand for the products of the farm is nothing less and prices are just about as good as they have been for the last two years, and there is no prospect of any change to admit of an increased consumption. While there is a constant fluctuation in the population engaged in placer mining, which is all the time [illegible] the number of men engaged in the more permanent and steady business of developing and working quartz, is daily [illegible], and will continue to increase for years to come. The demand for farm products in the mines on the Lower Salmon, Clearwater and Boise is being all over supply raised, so that [illegible] crop that is now being sown, without the [illegible] of war, will be being all over supply raised, or that [illegible] can materially reduce prices. The fact is, prices ought to be reduced. No country can prosper long where living is so high as it is here. But that, even, is not the worst side of the case. Missing hay been, during the last winter, seriously cramped for want of hay and grain to feed teams. This ought to be speedily remedied and must be, if the Territory ever becomes a fit place to live in. If it be believed that the yield of the placer mines will, this year, exceed that of last, for reasons [illegible] are familiar. The great depth of snow and the manner it went off last year, did so much damage to ditches and claims that it took half the season to repair it. That will not be suffered this year. Notwithstanding the dull market for [illegible] in the Boise placer, there will be twice the amount of money expended for [illegible] claims that was expended last year, while the mills will yield more than double the amount of last year, if a comparison between the condition now and a year ago teaches anything. From all these facts we conclude that the [illegible] of the farmers of Idaho never so flattering as now; and as for accumulating wealth they are better than those of any of the surrounding States or Territories, Montana, perhaps, excepted.

LANE COUNTY UNION RESOLUTIONS.—The following are the Lane county resolutions:

WHEREAS, We believe in the maintenance of the integrity of these United States, and the principles enunciated in the Declaration of Independence, and

WHEREAS, We believe this can only be done by the perpetuation of the Union organization, therefore

Resolved, That we are opposed to raising minor issues that will have a tendency to divide or weaken the Union party.

Resolved, That the Union party of Lane county will sustain and uphold the President and Congress in their arduous work of restoring the late rebellious States to their proper place in the Union, and in maintaining the Constitution and laws of the United States.

UNITY.—Throughout the State, so far as we have any account of the holding of Conventions, harmony has prevailed among Union men. That there shall be no division of the Union party, is the sentiment which pervades the sets and utterances of the people.—Corvallis Gazette.

The President says that he is in favor of negro suffrage in Tennessee—but opposed to it in Washington. Is it to be inferred that he is in favor of it where he is not, and opposed to it where he is?

COLDS AND COUGHS—SUDDEN CHANGES OF CLIMATE are sources of Pulmonary and Bronchial affections. Experience having proved that simple remedies act speedily when taken in the early stage of disease, take at once "Dr ...'s Bronchial Troches," for the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be warded off.

S. T.—1860.—I.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated

PLANTATION BITTERS,

Which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supercede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate.
They create a healthy appetite.
They are an antidote to change of water and diet.
They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours.
They strengthen the system and enliven the mind.
They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers.
They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach.
They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation.
They cure Diarrhœa and Chronic Diarrhœa.
They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache.

They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of imposters. Examine every bottle. See that it has our private U. S. Stamp unmutilated over the cork, with plantation scene, and our signature on a fine steel plate side label. See that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an imposter. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be so prosecuted by us. We earnestly have our eye on several parties re-filling our bottles, &c., who will succeed in getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this potent remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, purifies and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found equally [illegible], and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants. THE FREEDMEN AND LABOR CONTRACTS IN TEXAS.—The citizens of Panola county, Texas, recently petitioned the military authorities for the appointment of a Provost Marshal for that county, to preserve order. General Gregory replied as follows:

In general, the freedmen of Texas present a record which, for service and order, is most commendable. Turned headlong into freedom, without preparation, without premonition, by men at war with their masters, and told that they have been wronged and have a heritage of vengeance, they exhibit in their industry, docility and patience an example beyond expectation of man. No people have ever been so tried—none have ever so stood trial. The poor toilers of any European State, thus suddenly unchained, would have taken their rulers by the throat and carried carnage into every household in the South. While this forces has jurisdiction over all matters that concern the freedmen, its uniform policy has been to avoid class legislation. It cordially invites the civil authorities to take cognizance of all offenses committed by or against the negro, and it interferes only when the State has neglected to act, or where manifest injustice has been done. In a word, the Bureau leaves the freedmen as men of other races are left, to the protection of equal laws, insisting only that no distinction against one race in favor of the other shall be allowed.

If, then, disorders prevail in your county, the remedy lies ready to your hand. Apply the vagrant and criminal laws of the State to black and white alike, and mete out to each offender the stern discipline of justice. You have courts, juries, judges, and all needful officers of law; use, then, this machinery against all disturbers of your peace, irrespective of color or caste. Special legislation is uncalled for and unwise, when every occurrence of disorder, violence or crime among the colored people can be met by the simple provisions of the civil code. If in your locality the laborer refuses to work, it may be because, though slavery be extinct, its collateral influences and ideas still survive, and new inducements have not taken the place of the lash and the chain. It may be that the planter, as well as the negro, has not yet learned what free labor means. Many of the freedmen were, last year, defrauded of their earnings. When the crop was gathered by their toil, they were turned loose upon the State without money, means or clothing. This unchivalric and bitter injustice has not been forgotten by the sufferers. They now hesitate to trust because they are not sure that this day's work will bring the day's wages. Better treatment and prompt pay will soon set this disturbed question than a brigade of Provost Marshals! Texas can be prosperous only through the honored of its labor with its capital. Its products, cotton, sugar, corn, must be grown. The labor is free, and is peculiarly adapted by nature and training, as a tropical race, to cultivate these tropical products. But to make their labor available, an entire change in the old system of industry is needed. The spirit that has made the great States of the Northwest must be at work in Texas; and villages and small farms, the steam engine and the water-wheel, the school-house and church, shape its society. A generation which has never been in the school-house is even now knocking at your doors. When the farmers in the West and North are in want of hands, they offer every inducement to their workmen. Besides enhanced wages, care is taken that they have pleasant and comfortable homes, schools are furnished for their children, churches are built, and all means provided for their comfort. This course will bring the same success on the banks of the Brazos, the Colorado, or the Trinity, as on the Ohio.

STANDARD OF WEIGHTS AND MEASURES.—Mr. Allison, of Iowa, has introduced in Congress a bill to fix a standard of weights and measures; to take effect and be in force on the first day of July, 1866, and provides: First—That the unit of length shall be the metre of the ten-millionth part of the distance from the pole to the equator, measuring at the level of the sea, its multiples and sub-multiples, in kilometres, decametres, and myriametres; its subdivisions, the decimetre, centimetre, and millimetre. The unit of surface shall be the are or square decametre; one square hectometre shall be called centare; and one square decametre shall be called hectare. The unit of solidity shall be the stere or cubic metre; its subdivisions, the decistere, centistere and millistere. The unit of capacity shall be the litre or decimetre; its multiples, the decalitre or centilre; its subdivisions, the decilitre, centilitre or millilitre. Second—For the purposes of assessing or collecting duties and taxes for the sale of public lands, and all purposes where the necessary is authorized, the following system of proximate equivalents is established, viz: [illegible] inch, the miles, link and [illegible] yard; one decimetre, five-tenths of one [illegible] one kilometre, six hundred and twenty-five [illegible] [illegible] of a mile; one decistere, one and [illegible] cubic yards, one hectare, two [illegible] [illegible] of an acre; one litre, three hundred and [illegible] five thousandths (.265) of a gallon; one [illegible] thirty-two-one-hundredths of a pound; one kilogram, two and two-tenths pounds avoirdupois; one ton, two thousand two hundred and forty pounds. The bill proceeds at length to fix all the various weights, and measures, in accordance, it is understood, with the French decimal system. The adoption of this bill would be likely to lead to some confusion, and obligate our market folks to study French.

BILL TO REGULATE THE CHARTING OF PASSENGER STEAMERS.—Mr. Dutling, of New York, has introduced in Congress a bill to prevent the overcrowding of passengers in steamers and other vessels. It prescribes the number of passengers which may be lawfully taken on any such steamer, exclusive of the hands employed, but allows cabin passengers, and excluding for the [illegible] [illegible] the petition of the vessel as originally [illegible]. The [illegible] in the poop or deck [illegible] and the upper, lower and between decks, to the utmost limit of their capacity. In the upper between decks one passenger to every one hundred and [illegible] feet, and in the lower between decks one to every one hundred and twenty cubic feet. To every passenger assigned to [illegible] or brought [illegible] a ticket of the proper number, the master or other person in command of the [illegible] to subject, on conviction, to the fine and penalties provided—namely, fifty dollars for every [illegible] and, at the discretion of the Judge, be [illegible] for a period not exceeding six months. Passengers and their personal baggage are to be landed at such a place within the port as may be directed by the Collector or other chief officer of the customs, provided that such directions shall not be any way inconsistent with the provisions of the health laws of the State; and if any such officers are landed contrary to the direction of [illegible] or other chief officer aforesaid, the master and owners of the said vessels shall severally forfeit and pay to the United States the sum of five hundred dollars. There are other provisions to the proposed penalties for, including the [illegible] of the vessel.

NEW YORK MAY.—The Virginia Union (Democratic) says:

Early in the administration of Andrew Johnson we counted the old Democrat in the small beginnings and givings out of his executive policy. We are a Democrat. Not only historically, but personally, from his early advent into Congressional life, and felt that we could rely upon his patriotism, firmness and resolution of character to restore the Government firmly upon the Constitution of the several States, and all of them, to their original rights, and the people to their liberties. During the political campaign of last year, impressed as we were with a conviction that the Republic would receive no detriment at its hands, we cordially rallied to his policy and gave to his support all the strength of our feeble arm. The developments of the present demonstrate that we were not mistaken in our estimate of the man; and the people of the country are rejoicing in the realization of a happy deliverance from the madness and miseries of radical Republicans.

TALE RATIONS IN 1742.—In 1742 the faculty of Yale issued the following order for the students' rations: "Ordered, that the steward shall provide the commons for the scholars as follows, viz: For breakfast, one loaf pf bread, for four, which shall weigh one pound; for dinner for four, one loaf of bread as aforesaid, two and half pounds of beef, veal or mutton; or one and three-quarter pounds of salt pork; about twice a week in the summer time, one quart of beer, two pennyworth of sauce, (vegetables); for supper for four, two quarts of milk, and one loaf of bread; when milk can conveniently be had, and when it cannot, three apple pie, which shall be made of one and three quarter pounds dough, one quarter pound hog's fat, two ounces sugar, and a half peck of [illegible]."

NAVAL APPOINTMENTS.—The War Department has made the following assignments: Lieutenant Colonel John McE. Taylor, commissary of subsistence, to have general supervision of the department in the States of California, Nevada, and Oregon, and in the Territories of Washington, Arizona, and Idaho; Major Albert H. Hull, to have general supervision of the subsistence department in the Territory of New Mexico, and in the contiguous parts of Texas and Arizona; Major Samuel A. Foster, to report to Fort Vancouver, Washington Territory.

FOR CONGRESS.—The Oakland News is another Union paper that strongly supports the position of Congress on the reconstruction question. The Sonora Herald, which at first endorsed the President, comes out for Congress. The Herald makes the district's Union paper supporting Congress.—Marysville Appeal.

A CASE OF "VERY DRUNK."—General Meagher, Acting Governor of Montana, made a speech at Helena, on February 7th, which we find published in the Montana Post, in which he defines his position. He commenced by stating that "when he came to the Territory he fell into the hands of some political rascals who advised him against convening the Legislature; but upon consultation of some lawyers he was convinced that he was in error, and his Irish heart could not stomach the influence, and, since that time, he had been opposed by the political rascals into whose hands he fell, when he first came here. That he gloried in being a Democrat, and in occupying the high position in which his political opponents had placed him—and that now, when he was satisfied he had the power to do so, was the time to call the Legislature and Convention, and not to wait until more Republicans came to the Territory before doing so, as he had been advised to by political rascals. That complaints had been made of his appointments of men to office, and he had been told that he had appointed rebels and bushwhackers, and that he gloried in having done so. That it was time to heal all difficulties, and the way to do so. That he had his instructions from the Lieutenant General. That these epithets were not known at the scene of conflict; but originated thousands of miles away, among those who were safe in the mountains. That he had fought bravely for four years, and many times, after a battle, he had seen the brave, noble and heroic Southern soldier lying on his back, with his frozen hand in his knapsack grasping the last morsel of parched corn; that they were true soldiers and heroes, and the noblest of men. That when the great and noble Lee and Johnson honorably sheathed their swords, the acts of no one should be remembered against him; but that all should act and feel as brothers, and that discrimination should not be exercised against them. That some political rascal had been reporting stories about him, and he would like to grasp him by the throat and choke it out of him.

JOHN W. FORNEY.—The following is an extract from a double-leaded editorial in the Washington Chronicle of February 20th. The sentiments it contains are fully indorsed by the loyal men of the country. The man whom the President in the excess of refined humor called a "dead duck," is evidently distressing "Moses" Johnson a good deal:

"This Message of President Johnson will fall like the cold hand of death upon the warm impulses of the American people, who have given so much of their treasure and their blood to the cause of the republic. That's reposed such unlimited and unquestioning confidence in the Executive. It is not the fact that he refuses to sign Freedman's bill that will startle and paralyze them, but when he appeals, nay, demands that the States now almost as rebellious as they were a year ago, certainly as filled with hate of the Congressional majority and the loyal masses of the American people, shall at once be rehabilitated, he will send a thrill of dismay to every loyal heart throughout our wide domain. There is, indeed, cause for universal solicitude. The surrender of Lee was only a beginning of a new rebellion. The defeated traitor threatens again to become the triumphant dictator; even from the strong cell in Fortress Monroe the chief conspirators may begin to indulge the hope of returning to the Senate of the United States to resume that fatal supremacy which encouraged secession under one Administration and precipitated rebellion against another."

ANOTHER CALL TO THE WEST.—The Boston Voice of a late date says that the Rev. William K. Hull, of Massachusetts, has been called to preach in San Francisco for one year, as a candidate for the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church (old school) of this city, at a salary of four thousand dollars in gold. This the Voice styles a "loud call."

Sam. Adams in 1787 said: "In monarchies, the crime of treason, or rebellion, may admit of being pardoned or lightly punished, but the man who dares to rebel against the laws of a Republic, ought to suffer death."

Andy Johnson said the same in 1865, but soon backed out of it and went into the clemency and pardoning business.

The story is told of the clerk of an English church who, finding it very difficult to pronounce the names of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, which occur twelve times in the third chapter of Daniel read them only once and in the subsequent verses referred to them as "the aforesaid gentlemen."

The internal revenue tax in New York yielded, during the year 1865, $37,156,411. This is nearly forty dollars per head for every man, woman and child in the city. This does not include the sums received from the sale of stamps, which will probably amount to ten millions more, nor the returns from the tax on bank and insurance stock, etc.

THE LATE TEXAS CONVENTION.—The delegates to the late Texas Convention, called to accept "Moses" Johnson's plan of reconstruction, was composed of secessionists almost entirely, and the President of the same had been President of the Secession Convention held in that State in 1861, when Texas went out of the Union.

WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL
TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence.

Prices Greatly Reduced
LEFFEL'S
American Double Turbine Water Wheel
IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 48 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it has a fall.
All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance, commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.
This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds, will yield from 15 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 (or 30) feet. They are driven at a speed which is easily known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.
The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,
